Re: Toronto Labour Day Parade 2012 – Monday, September 3, 2012

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

The 2011 Toronto Labour Day Parade was a resounding success. We are proud to say that CEP has contributed greatly to the success of the Toronto Labour Day Parade as more and more CEP members turn out to show their Union spirit and pride.

Once again, there is no longer automatic free entry into the CNE following the Parade. In order to gain free admission, it is necessary for each participant to be wearing a wristband. These wristbands will be distributed prior to the start of the Parade at the CEP gathering point.

Attached is the flyer for the 2012 Toronto Labour Day Parade. We ask that you post it on all bulletin boards as well as distribute it to your members.

The theme for this year's Parade is "UNITE AGAINST AUSTERITY".

Let us make this the most successful Toronto Labour Day Parade in history!!

In solidarity,

LET'S MARCH

Toronto Labour Day Parade
"UNITE AGAINST AUSTERITY"
 Monday, September 3rd, 2012

This year's Labour Day Parade will be held on Monday, September 3rd, 2012. We encourage Local members and their families to be there to march with us!

Meet your CEP Sisters and Brothers under the CEP banners on the east side of University Ave., just south of Dundas St. at 9:00 am. (Please see map below).

Bring your family and friends – free admission to the EX at the end of the parade. However, you must be wearing a wristband to receive free entry. They will be distributed prior to the start of the parade at our gathering point. While you wait for the commencement of the Parade, there will be coffee, water, a light snack and the CEP giveaway!

PLEASE POST AND DISTRIBUTE
